

HappeningsBihari Minority
Said Massacred
In Bangladesh

DACCA (UPI)—Hundreds of Biharis in the city of Khulna in southern Bangladesh were massacred this weekend, according to reliable reports Monday.

Estimates of the number killed range from 300 to 1,000, including women and children. The Bihari minority in this newly created Bengali nation are north Indian Moslems who settled here when Pakistan was created in 1947 and supported Pakistan during the Bengalis' fight for independence last year.

According to one version, the Biharis objected to Bengalis taking their jobs at one of the jute mills in the city. Later a Bengali body was discovered near the Bihari colony, this version said, and Bengalis poured into the area armed with lengths of bamboo, knives and machetes.
