

SYRACUSE HERALD-JOURNAL, Dec. 27, 1971

Fearful and bitter

Bihari people, members of ethnic minority in East Pakistan, sit atop a bus in Mirpur. The community of 300,000 has been cut off for two weeks from food and medical supplies. Biharis say they have been afraid to go to markets in Dacca, about five miles away, since two bus loads of them were killed Dec. 17 in wild shooting following Pakistani surrender. The Biharis are widely mistrusted as allies of the former Pakistani regime. AP Wirephoto.